Blog Package	Cost: £199.00
A blog can compliment your business by displaying related articles that your potential customers might find interesting. It will also provide another method of marketing your business more effectively with the search engines. Articles and related information can be added easily via web based interface. So, What is a blog? Blog is short for "web log." Basically, a blog is an online journal. You can write or post articles about your business and its industry and allow your customers to comment. A blog can include words, photos, or both. You can also decide how private or public to make your blog by setting your permission preferences. Your blog will compose of one or more blog entries. Each entry can have its own title and always says the date and time you published it. Blogs show the last entry first, and you can scroll down to read earlier entries. So it's like a reverse diary. Have a look at our blog – www.blog.tawemedia.co.uk and all will be explained. This package includes a .co.uk domain name and hosting for the year. After the initial year hosting will be charged at £49.99 per annum with the domain name requiring re-registration every two years. * Please see our basic terms and conditions for further information.
